NOTE: This guideline is provided only as a public service and is not meant to be legal advice. The Register in Probate Office cannot give legal advice; please contact an attorney if you have legal questions. This guideline is subject to change or amendments.

A guardianship action for an incompetent is used to appoint someone to make healthcare, medical, personal and/or financial decisions for an incompetent person. Although attorneys often complete guardianships, the law allows for individuals to petition the court without hiring an attorney. A protective placement action is necessary when an incompetent individual meets the standards for placement/service. Self-represented individuals are responsible for completing all legal requirements.

If you are commencing a guardianship proceeding without an attorney, you must:

- Review the following information carefully.
- Complete all forms required. *You will need to complete all forms before they are submitted.
- File the completed forms and other required documents with the Register in Probate Office.
- e-Filing is now available and if you wish to e-File this proceeding, see the e-Filing section at the end of this document.

FORMS: All forms are available online and can be found at: www.wicourts.gov. You can fill the forms in online as a Word document and then print; or you can print the forms and complete them by hand.

REQUIRED TRAINING: Effective 1/1/2023, any person nominated to be appointed guardian of the person and/or guardian of the estate of an alleged incompetent adult is required to satisfy the guardian training requirements under Sec. 54.26, Wis. Stats. Nominated guardian(s) must provide confirmation to the court at least 96 hours prior to the final hearing that the training requirement has been met. To enroll in this free online course, individuals will visit <https://www.uwgb.edu/guardianship-training/>. This course is self-paced and is accessible 24/7.

An appointment is recommended when you are ready to file your papers. Please call the Register in Probate Office at 715-232-6782 to set up an appointment.*
